HAND IN HAND.
WHERE YOU FIND ONE, YOU'LL FIND THE OTHER.

Health and Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy are hand in hand, and where you find one you'll find the other. The countless testimonials received by the Doctor from sufferers who have been cured of the numerous diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder, Blood, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and Female Weaknesses, is splendid proof of this fact.

Put some urine in a small glass and let it stand 24 hours; if it has a sediment; if it is pale or discolored, cloudy orropy; your kidneys and bladder are sick and there is no medicine in existence that has made such remarkable cures as Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. If you are doubtful, it will only cost you the price of a postal card TO DISPEL THAT DOUBT.

It is a matter of absolute indifference to us how many physicians or specialists have prescribed for you without bringing you relief; write your full name and address on a postal card and send it to the Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Rondout, N. Y., and you will receive absolutely free, a trial bottle of DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY, of sufficient quantity to convince you of its rapid relieving powers, and that a continuation of its use will cure any disease of the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder and Blood.

Drugs sell it in New 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles.

DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S ROSE JELLY radical cure Catarrh, Hay Fever and Cold in Head. 50c. Catarrh, Hay Fever and Cold in Head. 50c.

When the Nuts Turned Brown
By WINTHROP ALLEN
Copyright, 1931, by A. S. Richardson

Walton Ford sprang forward as he caught the flash of a bright autumn costume through the trees. Then he shrank back. It was too late, however, for the swift, graceful figure stepped forward among the rustling leaves.

It was the woman's turn to be embarrassed. She recovered quickly and with a haughty inclination of the head remarked:

"Pray, don't imagine I was following you. I supposed you would remain with the rest of the party, and I wanted to be alone."

"Precisely my predicament, and I've managed to get lost."

They stood silently regarding each other. It is not the most pleasant situation imaginable to find yourself alone in the bare autumnal woods with ing uncommon when plowing to find large stones that have been heaved nearer the surface that one wishes to remove, and the lifting of such stones on to a wagon is simply out of the question. The stoneboat being so light and easy to handle can be quickly brought around and the stone loaded without any hard lifting and drawn to some out of the way place.

A New Fruit Peril.

California is now on guard against the entry of the Queensland (Australia) fruit fly, which has so ruined the fruit industry in Queensland that the farmers are in many instances burning their trees and converting their acres to pasture or the growing of wheat and barley. According to the San Francisco Examiner, Mr. George Comper of California has been employed by the Australian government to search in every country of the earth, if necessary, till he finds an insect foe that preys upon and keeps this destructive fruit fly in check. It is thought that somewhere such an insect must exist, and the Queensland fruit fly cannot be fought by the ordinary methods of spraying. No species of fruit is exempt. Melons, grapes, apples, pears, plums, peaches, oranges, lemons and, in fact, every fruit used as human food is attacked and devoured.

Imagine Portia modernized and strictly up to date, and you will have a fairly accurate idea of the personality of the young woman lawyer who presides over the Rockefeller branch of the Legal Aid society.

Imagine Shakespeare's cleverest heroine after a strenuous day in the halls of justice—the erstwhile sober, hard headed Portia—relaxing her benched stiffened legs by a run over the golf links; imagine her tossing the tennis ball and tackling on the college gridiron or developing the judiciary biceps by a friendly bout with the "gloves."

Just imagine the charming, clever Portia of classic memory doing all these modern athletic "stunts," and if you would see the materialization of

It is true, but none the less true, to say of Miss Margaret May Burnet of New York that she combines the dignity and astuteness of a Portia with the athletic prowess of a Diana. Imagine Portia modernized and strictly up to date, and you will have a fairly accurate idea of the personality of the young woman lawyer who presides over the Rockefeller branch of the Legal Aid society.

Imagine Shakespeare's cleverest heroine after a strenuous day in the halls of justice—the erstwhile sober, hard headed Portia—relaxing her benched stiffened legs by a run over the golf links; imagine her tossing the tennis ball and tackling on the college gridiron or developing the judiciary biceps by a friendly bout with the "gloves."

Just imagine the charming, clever Portia of classic memory doing all these modern athletic "stunts," and if you would see the materialization of

WEST PARIS.

Golden Wedding.

On Saturday, April the fourth, Cora and Lillian Young gave a dance for party to relatives in honor of their father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Young's fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Several of those expected were unable to be present on account of the unfavorable weather, but the long dinner table was filled and the night was bright inside. The rooms were decorated with evergreen and flowers. The center piece on the dinner table was a bouquet of fifty roses, presented by Mrs. William Hayes of Lewiston. At the close of the dinner an original poem was read by Cora Young, and letters and telegrams of congratulation from absent ones in California, Dakota, Wisconsin, Philadelphia, Boston, Melrose, Portland and Norway.

During the afternoon several of the older friends in the immediate neighborhood called. Frank L. Sturtevant of Paris gave several large silver cups, Cakes, fancy crackers and ice cream were served. Many valuable presents were received, among them a goodly number of good sized gold pieces.

The relatives who were present at dinner were L. A. Hayes and wife and Bessie Hayes of Woodville; William Hayes of Lewiston; Charles Young and Charlotte Young of South Paris; Fred Young of Norway; Ruth Young of Locke's Mills; C. W. Dunham and wife; Mrs. N. M. Small and Mrs. L. F. Emmons of this place.

S. N. Young, son of Daniel Young, was born in Greenwood, Sept. 13, 1829. The first years of married life were spent on the farm as a successful farmer. He served the town as town treasurer and selectman. He sold his farm in 1871 and was employed on the Grand Trunk railway for some time. He was offered the position of assistant road master just as he had completed arrangements to go into the grocery business in Lewiston.

He decided however to go into trade and was a well known business man in Lewiston from 1873 to 1883. Reverse in business prompted the idea of resuming farming and he is known in Oxford county as a breeder of pure blooded Hereford stock.

Mrs. Young was the daughter of Isaac Hayes of Norway. She was born in Poland, Sept. 10, 1831. She has proved to be a good housewife and a good mother. She has those qualities which the good Book claims is best for a wife to possess, as she "looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness." Her children arise and call her blessed.

There were three children, Cora Esther, Lillian Adelia and Newell Percy, the youngest and only son being taken from them by death when only sixteen years of age.

Mr. Edwards, on his way will supply part of the preaching at the Free Baptist church from now till September.

The W. C. T. U. had an interesting meeting at Mrs. Lane's, last Thursday afternoon. It was the last meeting with Mrs. Rich as president. The Union was very sorry to lose with her and showed their appreciation by presenting her with a beautiful little clock as a token of love. She responded with feeling and assured them that her heart has been in the work with them in the two years that she has been president and that it will ever be with them in thought although not in person. She was also presented with a W. C. T. U. calendar with a blue print of Mrs. Stevens, Anna Gordon and Lady Somerset, by one of the members.

All Humors

Are impure matters which the skin, liver, kidneys and other organs can not take care of without help, there is such an accumulation of them.

They litter the whole system. Pimples, boils, eczema and other eruptions, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, bilious turns, fits of indigestion, dull headaches and many other troubles are due to them.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Remove all humors, overcome all their effects, strengthen, tone and invigorate the whole system.

"I had salt rheum on my hands so that I could not work. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it drove out the humor. I continued its use till the sores disappeared." Mrs. Ida O. Brown, Rumford Falls, Me.

BETHEL.

Rev. A. G. Gaines.

Rev. A. G. Gaines, whose death occurred, Feb. 24, in Canton, N. Y., is remembered by the older people in Bethel and vicinity with sincere respect. He was pastor of the Universalist church at Bethel for several years.

The following sketch of Prof. Gaines of St. Lawrence University is taken from Bardeen's Dictionary of Educational Biography. "Absalom Graves Gaines (American, 1827) 3d president of St. Lawrence University, after graduation from the University of Virginia in 1850, taught in the Clinton liberal institute. In 1857 he was ordained, and was pastor in Maine till 1870, when he removed to Canton, N. Y. In 1872 he became professor of moral philosophy in the St. Lawrence University, and was president of it. His great mental powers, his unusual logical ability, his ripe experience with his clear and forcible style of expression, and his noble uprightness of character are impressed upon all his students. He is eminently a wise man. There is one of his utterances: 'When I hear a young man call Socrates a knave and Aristotle a fool, it does not particularly change my opinion of Socrates and Aristotle, but it gives me a gauge by which to measure the young man.' He is a professor of moral philosophy and political economy."

A Pastor Leaves for a New Field.

Rev. F. E. Barton of the Universalist church has accepted an appointment as state superintendent of churches and will enter upon his duties soon. He will reside in town for the present but resigns his pastorate here. He has had charge of this church about twelve years.

He enters upon his new duties at once, next Sabbath being the last that he will occupy his pulpit as pastor of his Bethel society. It is with extreme regret that his society gives him up as pastor, yet he is happy and glad for him that he has been sought for to fill such a responsible position. His home will be in Bethel—he says always—therefore his friends give him up more easily in his former capacity.

The timber drives are hung up for want of more water.

Maria Farwell is still at West Bethel caring for her mother.

Piping and other work is being pushed on the Congregational parsonage.

"Sailor Jean" passed through Bethel, Monday noon, on his trip through every state in the Union, visiting each and every capital. He pushes about 60 lbs. of baggage on his trip.

The little three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown on Main street fell down stairs, last Friday afternoon, breaking one of her arms twice besides being hurt quite badly internally.

The Y. P. C. U. of the Universalist church will have a sunrise meeting at six o'clock, Easter Sunday. The Y. P. S. C. E. and Epworth League join with them.

Gould Academy will profit greatly by the new law requiring towns to pay tuition of pupils in schools of certain grades when no free high school is maintained within the town. As Bethel has no free high school, but about fifty Bethel scholars are in Gould, this will mean quite a sum. It is also expected that neighboring towns will send more students than has heretofore been the case.

A rural free delivery route is proposed, running from the Bethel office down the river valley to East Bethel thence to the Locke's Mills road and return to the starting point, touching Swan's hill, but not running over it. The East Bethel post-office will be discontinued. The route will be looked at by the inspector, Saturday, and if in compliance with the requirements of the law, and a carrier is secured, the route will be soon established.

An Inquiry.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ADVERTISER: As a user of the water furnished by the Norway Water Co., I feel that I may make this inquiry without laying myself open to the charge of meddling with that which does not concern me. It has been rumored from time to time that there are houses at Frost's Corner and cottages on the lake shore, the closets and sink drains of which flow directly into the pond. Also cottages are to be found on islands which in themselves are so small that any other drainage than into the lake is a physical impossibility. It seems to me that this must of necessity result in the contamination of our water supply.

I have heard that an analysis of the water makes a fair showing as to purity but I have yet to be persuaded that any addition of sewerage is capable of working any marked improvement even in Penesseewassee water.

Will the Norway Board of Health (or its executive) or some one else, who is directly responsible for the purity of our water, kindly explain to the people why this condition of affairs is allowed to continue? EIGHT DOLLARS A YEAR. Norway, Me., April 8, 1903.

Letter to Geo. H. Austin.

NORWAY, MAINE.
Dear Sir: You are interested in the prosperity of your town, and every dollar anybody saves adds to the wealth of the place.

People can save half their money on paint—more than half. Devoe Lead and Zinc takes fewer gallons than mixed paints to cover a house, and lasts twice or three times as long as lead and oil.

Paint is saved; labor is saved; and the "painting nuisance" is made half as frequent.

When Devoe Lead and Zinc is established in Norway, Norway will get more out of it than we shall.

Yours truly,

F. W. DEVOE & Co., New York.

P. S. F. P. Stone sells our paint.

An Attractive Catalogue.

The 1903 catalogue just received from Elmwood Stud Farm, Lewiston Junction, Me., is one of the most attractive coming to our table this season. It not only gives the pedigree of a large number of choice horses, but contains several articles of interest, especially those on the History of the Horse and a sketch of the French Coach Horse. The illustrations are fine and show these horses in the stylish harnesses so popular today and for which they are peculiarly adapted. Instead of breeding for speed Mr. J. S. Sanborn, the proprietor, has for fourteen years been diligently seeking the ideal road horse and finding it in the pure and half bred French Coach horse bred at Elmwood Farm. Every reader interested in the noble horse of grand conformation will want a copy of this catalogue which will be sent free upon application to the superintendent, Dr. J. A. Ness, at the farm.

M. Angie Lombard of Lewiston, formerly of Harrison, who is suffering from cancer of stomach, is very low with no hope of recovery.

The Horse.

Bethel Horse Notes.

C. F. Lord, Prop. Prospect Inn, has lately returned home from Brookline, Mass., where he has spent most of the winter and brought with him one of the best actors ever seen in Bethel. This is a bay gelding, seven years old that was trained a little at three years and trotted three miles better than 2:30. He stands 15-3 and is very handsome, sound and kind, very stylish and a very high actor at both ends and good horseman that know him say he can trot at in 2:10 this season.

G. R. Wiley, our druggist, has like Wilkes 2:12 1/4, half mile track, and is looking fine. He is a model family horse and I think with good fitting can go to his record.

W. F. Kendall still has Promoter 2:28 1/4, which is no limit to his speed, and he is the best road horse I ever rode behind.

Dr. J. A. Twaddle has lately sold his gray stallion by Nelson 2:09 and bought a four-year-old by Prince Chimes, the dam of Likewise 2:17 1/4, he also has a stallion by Bayard, Wilkes, dam by Gideon. This is a nice gaited pacer and ought to go fast with a little training.

C. H. Hall's five-year-old bay mare by Highwood, dam by Don Cossack, is in nice shape, stands 15-3 and will weigh about 1100. This mare is called Hinette and she has a record of 2:33 1/4. She is an own sister to Cantabile 2:15 1/4, is a nice gaited trotter and if trained this year will trot around 2:20. She is safe for a lady to drive. A nice roadster and is nice headed.

Will Jenkins of Waterford has bought of G. E. Tarbox the brown five-year-old stallion El Mona, by El Sable, dam Mona A. 2:25 1/4. This horse stands 16 hands and weighs 1100, is kind and a good looker and has lots of speed, though never trained. C. R. Cross of Bethel has an own brother to him, a black four-year-old gelding that stands 15-3, is handsome and a nice gamy roadster and is still owned by L. A. Hall of Bethel and A. L. Young of Auburn. El Sable is an own brother to Sable Wilkes. L. U. Bartlett has the bay stallion, King Croix 2:30 1/4, but has sold Anodyne 2:23 1/4, to Auburn parties.—Turf, Farm and Home.

A Producing Mare.

A. J. Penley of South Paris has owned for many years a brood mare called Nettie, by Hector, a son of Howe's Pistie, by Hamiltonian 10. From this mare he has bred seven colts by Robinson D., by Daniel Boone. One of these colts was May Day, 2:21 1/4, as a 5-year-old. May Day now seven years old went a mile in sleigh in 2:12 last winter; she is now owned by T. Brisson of Montreal. Another called Daisy Dean was sold over a year ago for $300, then resold to New Hampshire parties for $500. A bay mare coming four is still owned by Mr. Penley, by name Lunette, in foal to Alcayone; next a filly, three this spring, called Elite also one a year younger; this one called May Bird is a racer and is the second edition of her fast sister, May Day, and is especially good shape with nice limbs.

Lady Kilmor is a daughter of Nettie and has herself raised a number of good colts, one now four years old by Robinson D., with great knee action, and Kilmor Wilkes, a gelding by Alcayone. Frank Taylor of South Paris has one of Nettie's colts, Robby D., which he bought of Mr. Penley, a very showy animal.

H. Fletcher and F. B. Fog also own some fine horse flesh.—Maine Farmer.

The "Peep" Frogs Have Arrived.

In our untutored and countryfied way of viewing things we have never had time to study frogs, except so far as they are fitted or unfitted to use as bait for pickerel. So when we classify the frog family we bunch them under three heads—"peep" frogs, "k-r-r-r" frogs, and "ker-chug" frogs, and of these three kinds we have heard but one this year. It was a cold night—next to the last night in March—and the water was running in all the brooks, when above the rush and swish of the currents, we heard a clear and continuous "peep, peep, peep, peep" coming from an abandoned mole-digging nearly half a mile away. Why this frog should have said "peep" at this time we do not understand, because it was so dark that nobody could so much as try to peep. Another thing which we could not understand why a frog that had passed the winter in safety below the frost should wish to come out on such a cold night and expose himself to pneumonia for the sake of "peeping." We are not certain—because we confess to knowing little about frogs, but we have the impression that he got out of bed and came to the feet, and insisted on warning them at his expense and insisted so vehemently that he could sleep no longer and arose from his uncomfortable position as an act of self protection.

We are convinced that it was something unusual that called him out in a few weeks his companions will emerge from their holes and then the k-r-r-r frogs to gargle their throats in muddy water and the ker-chug frogs start their choruses in the ponds, we shall not lack for music for several months. to come.—Bangor News.

E. W. Penley, West Paris, wants peeled pulp wood, spruce, fir, hemlock and poplar, delivered on the cars, as in his advertisement.

Governor Hill has proclaimed Thursday, the 29th of April, Fast Day.

Miss Agnes Miller, of Chicago, speaks to young women about dangers of the Menstrual Period—how to avoid pain and suffering and remove the cause by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"TO YOUNG WOMEN:—I suffered for six years with dysmenorrhea (painful periods), so much so that I dreaded every month, as I knew it meant three or four days of intense pain. The doctor said this was due to an inflamed condition of the uterine appendages caused by repeated and neglected colds.

"If young girls only realized how dangerous it is to take cold at this critical time, much suffering would be spared them. Thank God for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that was the only medicine which helped me any. Within three weeks after I started to take it, I noticed a marked improvement in my general health, and at the time of my next monthly period the pain had diminished considerably. I kept up the treatment, and was cured a month later. I am like another person since I am in perfect health, my eyes are brighter, I have added 12 pounds to my weight, my color is good, and I feel light and happy."—Miss AGNES MILLER, 25 Potomac Ave., Chicago, Ill.

The monthly sickness reflects the condition of a woman's health. Anything unusual at that time should have prompt and proper attention. Fifty thousand letters from women prove that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound regulates menstruation and makes those periods painless.

READ WHAT MISS LINDBECK SAYS:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has greatly benefited me. I will tell you how I suffered. My trouble was painful menstruation. I felt as each month went by that I was getting worse. I had severe bearing-down pains in my back and abdomen.

"A friend advised me to try Mrs. Pinkham's medicine. I did so and am now free from all pain during my periods."—JESSIE C. LINDBECK, 1201 6th Street, Rockford, Ill.

Doan's Kidney Pills, A Modern Medicine for Every Kidney Ill.

Mr. T. H. Hughes, of Saxtons River, Vt., employed by B. F. Locke & Co., says: "My kidneys did not act properly for years, and I gradually grew on me. For two or three years they troubled me very much with a dull, aching pain across my back and in my loins. I stood on my feet for any length of time, I felt the pain across my back more and my legs became numb. I could stand it no longer, I put on plaster, and the pain in my back got so bad that I used a great many of them. They did not reach the cause, a saw Doan's Kidney Pills, and I was induced to give them a trial, and I got them at Andrew's drug store. After the first dose I felt a great relief. After the treatment I seldom felt any symptoms of my kidney trouble. I feel that I took a former trouble, but when I did I took a few of Doan's Kidney Pills and it soon left me. My rheumatic pains were not so severe, and I did not have that tired, languid feeling. I had more energy in doing my work, and gave all the credit to Doan's Kidney Pills. They did me a great deal of good, and I feel justified in recommending them to others as a good and reliable medicine."

Bowser on a Hunt

He Decides to Go Out and Take the Scalps of a Few Rabbits, and Strangely Disappears

[Copyright, 1903, by M. Quad.]
M. R. BOWSER had started for the office at the usual hour and had been gone fifteen minutes when he returned. To Mrs. Bowser's query of what had happened to bring him back he replied: "You can see that half an inch of fresh snow fell last night, and I'm going to take a day off and go hunting. I've been waiting all winter for just such a day."

"But what can you hunt?" she asked. "Well, I'll go out and knock over a dozen rabbits, and perhaps I'll get a fox and a wild turkey or two. This is what they call a good tracking snow. If I get on the trail of anything, it can't escape me."

"I shouldn't think you'd want to go plying through the snow all day on the chance of shooting a rabbit, and no one knows what accident may happen to you."

"I do not intend to 'plover,' as you call it, and no accident will happen. I need a day off to brace me up, and you know that I love hunting. I'll bet I bring home more game than we can eat in a week."

It would have been useless for Mrs. Bowser to make further opposition. During the night Mr. Bowser had dreamed of slaying rabbits by the acre, and the fresh fall of snow had decided him to go out. He took half an hour to change his clothes and get out a shotgun that he had had in the house not feeling at all funny when my wife told me that a man with a gun was at the kitchen door. "Went out to see the man with a gun. "Found him to be short and fat, with a hopeful expression of countenance. "He said he had tracked a rabbit to my door and that he suspected the monster to have entered and hidden away in one of the rooms. "I opened on him in the English language and whistled for my dog, and the last I saw of him he was going through the orchard and looking for wolves. In the excitement of the moment, aided by the ache of the two boils above referred to, I may have made threats, but I cannot feel responsible if anything happened to him after he left my place. I have kept nothing back. This is all I know about the missing man."

It was a farmer half a mile farther up the same highway who brought in the fourth report. Having suppressed his emotions, he said: "It was last Tuesday. I was shelling corn in my barn when a stranger with a gun entered. I have reason to believe that his name was Bowser."

"I am not a humorous man, but when the stranger informed me that he had tracked a rabbit to his lair in the woods and wanted help to slay the monster I believe I smiled. I think he saw the smile, as he presently inquired what in blazes I saw to tickle me. We had a few words. They did not relate to for five years, and when he was ready to start he said:

"I shall probably be home about 4 o'clock this afternoon, but if I'm two hours late you needn't worry. I may run right into a drove of rabbits, and in case I do I shall keep right on slaying."

"Are you sure about yourself?" she asked.

"Sure about what?" "Well, you know, you once followed the track of a rabbit all day, and it turned out to be a cat. Do you think you can tell the difference between the tracks now?"

"I never followed the tracks of a cat, and you know it," he exclaimed. "This is just like you. I want a day off to supply our ice box with game, and you start in to spoil it."

"I don't want to spoil your day, but you know that cat tracks and rabbit tracks are almost alike. We had an old cat once."

"Your old cat is nothing to me. Do I look like a man who is going out to hunt cats?"

"I should say you were going out to hunt bears."

"Oh, you would? Well, I may pick up a bear or two as I go along. I may also be gone two or three days or a week. Perhaps when I drive up with a wagon load of rabbits you won't feel quite so cynical. I'm off. Goodbye."

The first report from Mr. Bowser after he left the house was given by a policeman, who said:

"I was standing on the corner when a man whom I recognized as Bowser came up to take the car. He had on rubber boots and a cap and carried a gun. I asked him if he was going out in the country to shoot frogs, and he glared at me and made no answer. He warned him to beware of ferocious woodchucks, and he glared again and took the car."

The next report was from the conductor of a suburban car. He said: "A short, fat man, who, I believe, was Mr. Bowser, took my car on Tuesday morning. He had a shotgun, and he asked me how many rabbits it took to load a vital spots in bears and wolves and asked if I had seen any elk or moose lately. I took him for a mighty hunter. There was a passenger by the same car who took him for an ass and said so, and Mr. Bowser called him a liar and offered to break his neck. He was very red in the face, and his ears were working as he left the car, and I had a feeling that if he met a grizzly bear it would be bad for the bear."

The third report was brought in by a farmer, who held up his right hand and said:

"I was in the house with a boil on my leg and another on my neck and
